

(This is a sample testimony and is not a true story. It is intended to help you create your own. Please send us replacement text if you wish to include a client story here.)

for being there for me and helping me make the wise decision.”
but she is optimistic, “I have a beautiful baby boy that I can’t imagine my life without. Thank you looked at some adoption information together.” She knows she still has a long road ahead of her, counselor. I knew why I didn’t want to have an abortion and what my other options were. We even with her parents and talked things through. “I felt so much more prepared after talking to the
With encouragement from our staff and a better understand of her options, Jessica sat down couldn’t have an abortion - not after seeing that little heartbeat and watching him move around.”

sure I could raise the baby on my own, but I had months to figure that out. All I knew was that I said. I was going through this pregnancy. I still wasn’t of my precious baby I knew it didn’t matter what anyone else nancy and a new determination. “After seeing the ultrasound After the first she left with a confirmation of her preg-know where else to turn.”

support a baby and my parents were going to freak out. I didn’t and alone. “I knew there was no way my boyfriend would help
When Jessica walked through our doors she was scared

MERRY
CHRISTMAS
FROM NORTON
WOMEN'S CLINIC

Your support is truly a gift from God! Thank you for everything you have done to bless us this year. Each volunteer and donor is an essential part of making it possible for us to reach out to hurting women when they need us the most.

Please consider an end of year gift and continue to keep us in your prayers throughout 2010.

For all of us here at PRC of Mercene,

Amy Slicker

Amy Slicker

Director of Women's Services